

DISCLOSURE OF CUSTOMER BILLING NAME AND ADDRESS

Recently, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) decided that all telephone companies must provide, under certain circumstances, customer billing name and address information to all interstate telephone service providers (the largest of which are AT&T, MCI, and Sprint) to facilitate their billing needs. In that regard, the FCC specifically required us to notify you of this fact.

In accordance with FCC rules, your billing name and address information will be provided to all requesting interstate service providers in the following two instances:

- (1) Your billing name and address will be disclosed, pursuant to Policies and Rules Concerning Local Exchange Carrier Validation and Billing Information for Joint Use Calling Cards, CC Docket No. 91-115, FCC 93-254, adopted May 13, 1993, whenever you use the calling card issued by the Company to pay for services obtained from a telecommunications service provider, and
- (2) Your billing name and address will be disclosed, pursuant to Policies and Rules Concerning Local Exchange Carrier Validation and Billing Information for Joint Use Calling Cards, CC Docket No. 91-115, FCC 93-254, adopted May 13, 1993, whenever you accept a third party or collect call to your home or business telephone number.

As a customer of Southwest Arkansas Telephone Cooperative, Inc. with either a nonpublished or unlisted number, you can restrict disclosure of billing name and address information. However, in order to do this, you must notify us. If you decide that you do not wish to have your billing name and address disclosed to interstate telecommunications service providers, you should be aware that you will not be able to complete calls with your telephone company - issued calling card or have third party or collect calls billed to your telephone number. If we do not hear from you within thirty (30) days of the date of your receipt of this letter, the FCC's ruling indicates that we must disclose this information.

We would be pleased to answer any questions concerning this matter you may have.
